

Environmental Policy

RUAG Space AB develops and manufactures equipment for launchers and satellites to the international space industry.

Our products are constructed for best possible function, efficiency and reliability, in the same time the internal environmental work constantly improves the operating processes in order to prevent pollution.

Applicable laws and other demands within the environmental area shall always be obeyed.

All employees shall be well aware of the environmental targets and be motivated to recycle thinking, constant improvements and economize resources.